

Hello Sir/Madam,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is EKUNDAYO, Mayowa Timileyin.

The attached resume has a complete look at my experience and skills relevant to this position but here is a brief look of what I have to contribute to your company I am a Full-stack Website Developer, Writer, Social Media Enthusiast, Educationist and a Teacher with leadership skills. I studied at Aptech Computer Education where I obtained certification in Full-stack Website Development also Hiit (IT training) where I obtained certification in python programming also at University of Nigeria Nsukka, where I obtained my B. Arts degree in English Language Studies, and Education.

I'm a reasonable, visionary and highly committed young man with a rich knowledge as a Developer, Writer and a speaker with good a communication skills which gave me the advantage to be able to build website, write report and project a good outcome also ability to master and defend to the best interest. I have excellent verbal skills with the ability to communicate my thoughts in a clear and easy way of understanding.

Finally, I'm passionate about pushing quality brands to the limelight, I look forward to be part of the movement and work diligently for the success of this organisation. I possess active listening skills which gave me the opportunity to easily learn the unlearn for problem solving and have good human relationships with people within and outside.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mayowa Timileyin EKUNDAYO.